X-Ray Survey Success Seen

Well deserved plaudits from the district health department were this week given to the local chest X-ray committee, under chairman Dr. Mrs. Agnes Richardson of Grayling.

District health department director, Dr. C. E. Merritt, reported that the "success of Crawford County's tuberculosis detection program is due in no small measure to the excellent work of committees throughout the county."

He added that the teamwork shown by local citizens, physicians, school administrators, teachers, and civic, church and social service leaders "kept faith with the contributions made to the county survey by the Michigan Department of Health and Michigan Tuberculosis Association."

Dr. Merritt said figures on the X-ray drive available at the time the Crawford Avalanche went to press show that almost every area so far doubled and in some instances tripled last year's totals. 65 persons were X-rayed in Grayling.

Because of the large number of X-rays taken in the survey, local citizens should not be alarmed by a delay in receiving their reports. Chest and X-ray specialists will make every effort to have the readings on the films ready within the shortest possible time, Dr. Merritt said.

Diagnosis is not on the basis of suspected trouble as indicated by a miniature X-ray film used by the Michigan Department of Health unit, he added. "All those X-rays show suspected chest trouble, or those whose X-rays may have a technical defect will be urged to have other X-rays and, in the case of possible chest disease, tests by family physicians."

Dr. Merritt concluded with an appeal to all Crawford County residents to "see your family physician at least once a year. Chest X-ray, he declared, is not an infallible device and should be viewed only as a phase of regular health examination."

In the event you missed your chest X-ray when the unit was in Grayling, you may still procure your free X-ray at any one of the following locations: Mantion, Sept. 10; Lake City, Sept. 4, 8; McBain, Sept. 9, 10; Cadillac, Sept. 16, 17, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill St. Amant of Chicago spent the week end visiting with the Oscar Hanson cottage at Lake Margate.

"Dud" Shell Explosion Kills Two 15-Year-Old Boys Friday Evening

Accident Occurred Near Vacation Cabin

The explosion of a 57mm Army tank shell with which they were playing killed Gary Siewert, 15, and Paul Hulverson, also 15, near the Siewert cabin on M-72 six miles east of Grayling at 6:45 p. m. last Friday evening.

Both died almost instantly along with their pet dog as the violent explosion occurred.

The accident was investigated by Sheriff John A. Papendick, Coroner Alfred J. Soranson, National Guard officers and regular Army officers. Investigating officers said a "Call to dinner" probably saved the lives of at least three other persons.

Mrs. Siewert had finished preparing dinner and had called to the two boys, Hugo Siewert, her father-in-law, her daughter, Diane, and another young girl who was visiting the Siewerts, to come to dinner. Hugo Siewert and the two girls had just entered the cabin when the shell exploded, shattering the yard with deadly fragments of steel.

The fragments punctured the tire on an automobile nearby and ripped through the body of the vehicle in several places.

The explosion also touched off a hunt that led from Grayling to Crosswell to Cleveland when National Guard officials discovered that a third youth who had been visiting at the Siewert cabin had when he arrived only a minute or two following the explosion, but that the boy died almost immediately afterward.

The sheriff said a small hamlet lay near the bodies. He theorized that the boys had been hammering on the shells and somehow had managed to pick up a live one. The shell that killed the youths was one of the fragmentation types used mainly in tank operations against infantry.

The investigation launched immediately by National Guard officials revealed that a third companion of the two youths, Billy Jacobson, 14, of Cleveland, had returned to Crosswell early Friday morning with his aunt and uncle with whom he had been visiting. A call was rushed to Crosswell where the Jacobsons' relatives told Guard officials that young Jacobson had started home for Cleveland that afternoon taking the shells with him.

Guard officials immediately contacted the following:

Salisbury Vows Of Interest Here

Miss Grace Mathilda Woodson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Henderson Woodson Jr., and Thomas Henry Shelton Curd of Roanoke, Virginia, son of Mrs. Thomas Henry Shelton Curd of Welch, West Virginia, were married at historic Saint Luke's Episcopal Church, Salisbury, North Carolina, at eight o'clock Saturday evening, August 22nd.

The Reverend Thom Williamson Blair, rector, officiated.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white imported embroidered organza over taffeta designed with a scalloped square neckline, fitted bodice with buttoned down the back, short sleeves and a bouffant skirt with a cathedral train of cascading ruffles. Her fingertip veil fell from an embroidered organza-cloche.

She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley and wore a diamond and platinum necklace given to her at her christening by her maternal great-grandmother.

Mrs. Kyle Clifton Eller Jr., of Statesville was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Charlotte McLaughlin and Miss Martha de Hart of Winston-Salem. Miss Frances Williams of Fayetteville, Miss Louise Tate of Salisbury, Miss Peggy Snyder of Bay City, Michigan; and Mrs. John Spang Jr. of Alexandria, Va. Miss Nancy Wilcox of Grayling, Mich., and Miss Elizabeth Ann Curd of St. Petersburg, Fla., were junior bridesmaids.

All the attendants wore waltz-length gowns of wedding blue organza having cowl necklines, fitted bodices, tied with grosgrain ribbon and full skirts. Their head-dresses were face veils attached to bandeaux of blue straw flowers. They carried bouquets of yellow roses.

Dr. Howard Curd of St. Petersburg, Fla., was his brother's best man.

Mrs. Woodson, mother of the bride, wore a two-tone palette blue dress of chiffon with wide side panel of pale blue. Her hat

19 Teams To Start Canoe Marathon Friday At Midnight

A total of at least 19 two men canoe racing teams will start off at midnight this Friday night in the seventh running of the Michigan Canoe Championships, 240-mile marathon struggle from Grayling to Oscoda. 19 teams had entered by noon this Tuesday and it is possible that several more may file entry blanks before starting time on Friday.

The first 16 teams had their starting positions chosen at a drawing held at the Bay City Country Club last Thursday. Attending the drawing from Grayling were Race Secretary Robert Bovee and his wife and Grayling Sportsmens Club president, Eric Post and Mrs. Post. Following the luncheon, they were conducted on a tour of the Bay City Times and at 5:15, Mr. Bovee and Guido Freund, race chairman of Oscoda were interviewed over radio station WGRO on the canoe marathon.

A Detroit team, Clarence G. Raymond and Richard Griese drew the coveted first position to start the race. Those teams who entered after the drawing were given start position as their entries were received.

Chairman Freund predicted that upwards of 40,000 people will view the race along its 200-mile course because it will be held on Labor Day weekend when the number of visiting tourists and cottagers will be at capacity for the long holiday.

The committee pointed out that every year, with one exception, the record has been broken. The present record made last year—17 hours and 27 minutes—is believed again in danger because of a new paddling technique. This new method, a choppy, rhythmic stroke, is claimed less fatiguing to canoeists. Only stock canoes are permitted in the Au Sable race and entries are limited to men from 15 years up. Contestants must carry their own canoes over the six portages over the dams enroute.

Once again amateur radio operators will handle news of the race throughout its entire run from start here in Grayling to finish in Oscoda. Better facilities even than last year are expected in Grayling, Glennie and Oscoda. A special telephone has been installed in the Grayling Sportsmens building to be called anytime for race information and the progress of your favorite contestant. The phone will be in operation from 11 p. m. Friday night until a half hour after the third canoe crosses the finish line. Just dial-2600 for race information.

The following Grayling merchants made the installation possible: Ron's Hardware, Dawson's, Sales Store, B.C.D. Mac's, Grayling State Savings Bank, Olson's, Black and White, Weism Motors, McEvers Motor, Burrows Market, Lone Pine Inn, Alfred Hanson's, Davis Jewelry and Eben File. The aid was really appreciated and it is expected that hundreds of phone calls will be answered and will make the race that much more interesting.

Mt. Pleasant radio "hams" will operate the short wave station here at the Sportsmens building with a station at Dam Four operated by a Detroit amateur. A relay station near Mio will be handled by three men from Traverse City. The Glennie station will have as its operators a "ham" from Mt. Pleasant and one from Milford.

The Oscoda station will be set up in the Chamber of Commerce building and operated by Eb File and Floyd Davis, both of Grayling along with an Alpena "Ham". The mobile units, that follow the race during its progress, reporting in from various check points along the course, will come from Detroit, Traverse City, Mt. Pleasant, Grand Rapids, Saginaw and several other Michigan cities. If you appreciate the information these "hams" bring to you, tell them when you see them as it is the only reward they reap for the time and effort spent.

The two men teams are to report to the Grayling headquarters of the Michigan Canoe Championships, the Sportsmens Club building, between 4 to 6 p. m. Friday. The briefing luncheon will be held at 10 p. m. it was announced.

Thirteen teams have entered the boys' canoe race so far and entries will be accepted until 1 p. m. Friday afternoon. Teams are to report to the Sportsmens Club building by 1 p. m. and bring their canoes with them. Drawing for position and a briefing will be held at that time.

Grayling Mercy Hospital Drive Total Hits $140,486

Only a few days remain to complete the summer residents' phase of the $300,000 Grayling Mercy Hospital fund campaign, the campaign executive committee stated. To date $98,186 have been pledged by summer residents, leaving a balance of a minimum of $26,814 to be raised by Labor Day in summer residents' gifts in order to reach the goal of $125,000 for summer residents. A total of $140,486 has been raised. Of the total amount pledged, $42,300 has been given in memorial gifts by permanent residents.

The campaign executive committee stated that the generous contributions of the summer residents are essential to the success of the campaign because of the large amount to be raised in this area. The committee added: "We are happy that many summer residents will have memorial rooms bearing the name of the donor as well as the name of the one in whose memory the room is given. Many of those who have not given memorials have made $500 and $1,000 gifts. Very few pledges have been received under $150 as a three year pledge. We feel certain that the local people will not let the summer residents down. When the local phase of the campaign starts after Labor Day we feel confident that the permanent residents will give generously, and with the good start given us by the summer residents and the local memorial gifts, the campaign will be successful. We realize however, there is much work to do and we can't count on success until we have raised the $300,000 needed."

The executive committee urged all summer residents who have not been contacted for a pledge to call the Grayling Mercy Hospital or the campaign office and a volunteer worker would be sent to get the pledge.

The breakdown summer resident gifts is as follows: Higgins Lake $48,705, AuSable River $42,700, Lake Margrethe $5,900, Shu-Pac Lake $500, Prudenville area of Houghton Lake $381.

Navy Club To Exhibit Ripley Collection

Robert Ripley's personal collection of "Believe It or Not" oddities, being exhibited on national tour under the auspices of the Navy Club of the USA, will be presented in Grayling on Sunday, September 8th.

Believe It or Not cartoons have been appearing in newspapers throughout the world for years. On display in this exhibit will be some of the original drawings picturing facts which many found difficult to believe. The greater portion of the exhibit features part of Ripley's amazing collection of the authentic original subjects on which the cartoons are based. Every item is selected from the unusual assortment of strange things which Mr. Ripley spared no effort or expense to unearth during his endless explorations of all parts of the world.

The mobile exhibit is mounted on a special custom-built trailer, featuring the "Iron Maiden of Nuremberg". This inhuman killer of the dark ages is only one of many interesting articles with curiosity or oddity significance.

Grid Team Of Nearly Fifty Years Ago...

Here is really an "oldie", the Grayling football team of 1904. That's fifty years ago, but, even so anyone who has lived in Grayling for the past ten years or so should be able to pick out at least two of the players. Notice the fancy turtle-necked sweaters, noseguards and football jerseys. Do you know any of these players? If not, and you are interested, stop in and ask Spike. He can tell you the names of some of these gridiron stalwarts.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
FREDERIC, MICHIGAN

HOLD RECEPTION FOR BROTHER PHILIP

Brother Julian Philip, F.S.C., was tendered a reception Tuesday evening of last week at St. Mary's school given by members of St. Mary's parish to welcome him home after a five year absence. Brother Philip, formerly Robert Blshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blshaw having completed his religious education and who is now a professed member of the Brothers of Christian Schools was spending a five day vacation visiting at his home here.

The evening opened with a sermon in St. Mary's church, by Rev. Fr. John A. Breitenstein on the Life of a Christian Brother, which was followed by benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The reception to meet Brother Philip was held in the school.

It gave friends of the family and members of the parish an opportunity to congratulate the young man on his success and his proud parents for their part in having a son in religious life. The reception table was centered with a all-white frosted cake with the lettering "Welcome Brother Philip" in blue and was guarded by blue lighted candles, and there was a profusion of garden flowers about the room on the tables.

Mrs. James Duley and daughter Mary Kay of Midland were present at the festivities with the parents and other members of the family. And John Louis Kraus, C.S.B., who is studying at St. Basil's Seminary in Toronto was also among the guests.

Serving on the reception committee were Mrs. Leo Lovely, chairman, Mrs. Wesley LaCasse, Mrs. Joseph Cinciala, Mrs. Harold Rasmussen, Mrs. Harold Edwards, Mrs. Leslie Goss and Mrs. Leland Marshall.

Brother Philip left Thursday for St. Louis, Mo., where he will teach this coming year.

EDITORS NOTE

Following is a clipping from Lowville, N. Y., which is of interest to many in Grayling.

Lowville, N. Y., Aug. 19 — A full-size bed "all for myself," something he has repeatedly asked for in letters from a Korean prison camp, will be waiting for Pfc. Charles E. Ferguson, 21, released Tuesday after a Communist captive for 30 months, when he returns to his home in Dadville near here. Charles is the son of the former Miss Helen Dalling, daughter of the late George and Mary Dalling. She spent her girlhood here and attended Grayling schools.

"You bet your life he is going to have that bed, and all for himself," said the youth's mother, Mrs. Hilary G. Schack.

Informed at 11:45 Tuesday night of her son's freedom, Mrs. Schack was so overcome with joy that she was momentarily speechless.

"Thank God," she said when she regained her composure. "I have been praying every night asking God to make this one when I would hear of my son's release." Asserting that her son's freedom is "wonderful news," Mrs. Schack at the same time said she felt "sorrow for the other mothers who are still waiting." She added that she had constantly listened to the radio and watched television, hoping for the news of her son's repatriation.

Ferguson's father, Donald Ferguson, resides in Toledo, Ohio.

Joining in the celebration last night at the home of the youth's mother in Dadville were Ferguson's two sisters, Rose Marie, 12; Laura J., 11 and two brothers, Teddy, 14 and Robert L., 13. The children were awakened by their mother to hear the news.

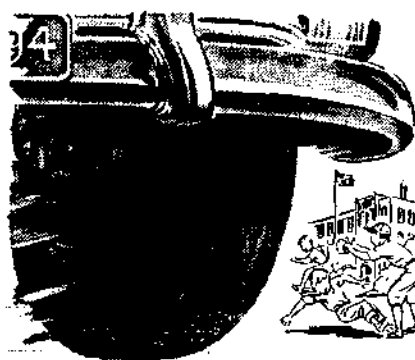

Mrs. Schack said that she had received two letters from her son in early June. The letters were written on May 1 and May 21. In them, Private Ferguson wrote that he was "awfully nervous." He frequently mentioned looking forward to being freed and said that he would be wanting "a job" when he got back home.

A native of Toledo, O., Private Ferguson was born July 24, 1932. He enlisted in the army in November 1949, and went overseas to Korea in May, 1950. He was taken prisoner on Feb. 12, 1951. In October of that year, Mrs. Schack received a letter from her son advising her that he was well.

There's Danger Ahead SCHOOL OPENS

A sudden screech of brakes! It could be your child under those wheels! Each day that you send your child off to school potential enemies stalk them! Just a flash-second of un-guarded action can cause tragedy!

... The casualties mount! More and more school children, struck down by careless drivers lose lives or limbs on today's civilian battlefield — the public street! Now is the time for extra driving caution! The toll of school bells, this Fall, is your warning bell: You can't be too careful behind that wheel. Until that peaceful day, when EVERYONE makes SAFE DRIVING his No. 1 civilian objective — make it an INDIVIDUAL matter with you. Your good example might set some reckless driver on the right road to safety! Show others the way. Be a leader at the wheel! Remember: "It takes years to raise a child — but less than a second to kill one."

Take This Four-Point Pledge For School-Time Traffic Safety:

INSURE YOURSELF — AND OTHERS — AGAINST TRAGEDY!

Point One: "I Will Drive Slowly:"

"When in the vicinity of schools, I will keep within the speed limit — or much less than that. I will be always ready to STOP in a flash — for that youngster who may dart from behind a parked car, or the unpredictable 'kid' on his bicycle. I will execute all traffic hand-signals."

Point Two: "I Will Observe All Signs:"

"I will heed signs that warn me where to-and-from school traffic is heaviest. Before coming to a crosswalk, or safety zone — supervised or not — I will give the proper hand signal, and if children are about to cross, come to a full STOP."

Point Three: "I Will Note The Time Of Day:"

"I will be doubly alert during the hours when school children are on the streets. Recesses, lunch hours, before and after school! These peak periods will find me ever-watchful — and prepared. In bad weather, I will guard against traffic 'unforseeables'."

Point Four: "I Will Keep My Car Tip-Top:"

"No matter how willing I am, I'll always remember that my car could be weak — just at the crucial moment. I will not handle the wheel unless I am certain that my car is in first-rate mechanical shape. I will have it checked and inspected, regularly, to be sure!"

REMEMBER — A "STOP" IN TIME CAN SAVE "MINE" .. AND I'LL BE ON THE LOOKOUT FOR "YOURS" TOO!

Chances to bag a deer are about as good as last year. And pheasant hunters can figure to shoot about the same number of birds as in 1952.

That's the prediction of Gerald E. Eddy, director of Michigan's Conservation Department, whose job it is to know such things.

Maintaining a wildlife census is only one of the responsibilities of the Conservation Department. Most of its duties, usually taken for granted by the public, have a direct effect on every Michigan citizen.

"To give the people the maximum benefit from natural resources is the aim of the modern conservation department," explains the director. "The old idea was to conserve by many restrictions" he continues. "But now we know that by careful planning, we can use more and have more left."

Illustrations of this are studies which show that short fishing seasons can actually result in overpopulation of fish in inland lakes. Deer, it was learned, multiply "nearly as rapidly as rabbits". Six were released in a protected area under ideal conditions. In six years the same area contained 136!

This season will include one day when any deer, doe or buck, can be taken. The day is December 1; the area is limited to the territory north of M-55 in the lower peninsula.

A double problem is created for conservation officials by the rapid expansion of Michigan's population. More people in the state mean more fishermen, more hunters, more campers. And living space for more people leaves increasingly less of Michigan's 87 million acres to devote to outdoor activities.

"What our department needs," says director Eddy, "is some organized support." He was referring to support which could lobby on behalf of conservation interests with the state legislature. "Nearly everyone benefits from parks and other activities of the department," the director said. "But lack of organized pressure results in appropriations too small for park expansion which we think necessary."

The Conservation Department is proud of its system of state parks. Figures show that more than 13,250,000 picnickers and bathers will make use of them this season. Camping in park sites has been increasing for several years—now at a high rate. "We could do and should do much more," states Mr. Eddy.

Pride is also taken by the department in its record of reducing loss from forest fires, its program for public fishing sites, forest management, and its watershed developments.

William J. Pearson, Boyne Falls, Michigan's first fire warden and later member of a Conservation Commission, once said that a "normal year's" loss from forest fires was about 250,000 acres. This year's loss is 1,105 acres from 301 fires. The department's tower watch, air and forest patrols, all with radio communication, locate fires before they do much damage.

Every year more road signs are seen saying, "Public Fishing Site" an important part of the department's program. Parking and boat launching facilities provide free access to lakes and streams and reduces trespassing problems for nearby land-owners.

Riverbanks are now protected in the watershed program. This prevents cattle from killing plants along riverbanks and reduces soil erosion. Dirt washed into the water is wasted. Worse, it covers natural food sources for fish. Work with riverbanks was done along the Rifle River, the Pine River and is under consideration for several others.

Trees are cut for lumber market under the forest management program. The department auctions off the right to harvest mature timber from the 4 million acres of state forests. Trees are taken selectively, only when ready; and at a rate which will perpetuate Michigan woodland.

Facts and Figures: nearly 1,500 people make up the department's regular staff. This sum swells to 2,100 during summer when life guards, fire watchers, fish crews and other temporary workers must be added.

It costs more than $11 million annually to operate the department. About $7,200,000 comes from fishing and hunting licenses; $2,535,206 were sold last year, more than any other state. Balance of the budget comes from $250,000 in federal grants and $4,100,000 from the state.

Money is kept in separate funds. The portion appropriated by the state is used only on programs of general public interest. This includes forest care, geological surveys, parks and the like. Sportsmen support their own activities through the fund made up of license fees.

Organized in 1921, Michigan's Conservation Department is controlled by a commission which has been, for the most part, free of political influence. Currently a battle has been raging concerning one commission chair. It is that of Harold Glasen, whose term expired this year. The Governor appointed Ben East, will known sports man and outdoor writer, to succeed Mr. Glasen—but the Legislature disapproved the appointment. Whether Mr. Glasen is a legal member, serving until his post is taken over by Legislature approved member, or whether the governor can appoint a member to serve now and until the Legislature either approves or rejects him, is a matter open to argument. If the Governor attempts to make a new appointment and if Mr. Glasen refuses to give up his chair, a lively political battle may take place.

"Scope of Michigan's department is the broadest of any in the country," says Director Eddy. Equipment to handle the task includes three airplanes used for fire spotting and emergency rescue work; several patrol boats on the Great Lakes; three Christ-Craft speedboats for checking on commercial fishermen, a photography lab and enough motor vehicles to fill the department's needs.

Wise use of Michigan's resources will guarantee recreational areas for sportsmen of today as well as tomorrow.

Science has done wonders in every field. It must go on and on. It is one business that knows no holiday. It has overpowered many diseases. Invented machines that took the drudgery out of labor. Transportation brought distant places to our door. Agriculture kept pace and fed our ever-increasing population. This has been as it should be. But everything has two uses, right and wrong. When we shift science into reverse, we fall back into the Dark Ages and, of course, it gets us into trouble and we are apt to do something that Nature forbids.
